discipline

Every child has his or her shortcomings. Our goal is to teach personal responsibility by discipline through the reality of consequences.

If a child is disobedient, disrespectful or otherwise unruly he will be given a "time out." The child will sit out of one of the activities for 10 minutes. If a child receives three or more time outs in a day, their parents will be notified. If the child receives three or more time outs on five different days in the course of one summer, his parents will be handed a letter of probation. If the child has another day in which he receives three or more time outs during his probation, the child will be unable to return to Kidz Kamp for the remainder of the summer.

These measures are put into place for the safety, protection and character building of your child. It is never our goal to single out or embarrass any child. Therefore, these disciplinary measures will be stated very clearly to your children, and parents will be kept very well informed of their child's behavior.

CHECK-IN • Please check your child in every morning at the Activity Center. This is the building next to the church on Putt-Putt Drive. Please note that all children are required to wear socks.

Weekly and daily fees are due Monday morning or on the single day that the child attends. If you are unable to pay in the morning, the amount will be received at afternoon pick-up. Those with a remaining fee will not be permitted to attend Kidz Kamp until the fee is paid. Checks should be made payable to Oakwood.

CHECK-OUT • Please come to the back corner door of the Game Room to pick up your child. The doors to the Activity Center are locked from the outside for the security of the children. If you knock on the double doors you will not be heard. If you need to check out your child during the day, please call the supervisor in advance to ensure the process is a quick and easy one.

In order to reserve a space for your child, please check the weeks they will most likely attend.
